Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Status

- 1) ☒ Responsive to communication(s) filed on 22 December 2006.
- 2a) ☐ This action is FINAL. 2b) ☒ This action is non-final.
- 3) ☐ Since this application is in condition for allowance except for formal matters, prosecution as to the merits is closed in accordance with the practice under Ex parte Quayle, 1935 C.D. 11, 453 O.G. 213.

DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on December 22, 2006 has been entered.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 1 and 4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

With respect to claim 1, the limitations "the time interval" and "the frame type" recite in lines 3 and 8 lack antecedent basis.

With respect to claim 4, the limitations "the time interval" and "the frame type" recite in lines 3 and 6 lack antecedent basis.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

Art Unit: 2616

3. Claim 4 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter.

With respect to claim 4, a transmitter for transmitting a message containing control information has no practical application.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

4. Claims 1 and 4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Dutta (US Patent No. 6,407,986 B1).

With respect to claims 1 and 4, Dutta discloses a method and apparatus (Fig. 1) for transmitting data comprising the steps of:

transmitting a message indicative of the rate of said data prior to and independent of data transmission (col. 20, lines 38-42, a code for one of the combinations of forward and return channel data rates transmitted in the bulletin boards sets the data rate at which a receiving data terminal 120 will transmit data over the assigned return channel 162 or 163. Herein, the bulletin boards are transmitted message indicative of the rate of the data) and the time interval over which said data will be transmitted at said rate (col. 23, lines 33-47, Table 1, slots per frame and frame period is the time interval); and transmitting said data at said rate during said time interval using one data transmission channel (col. 10, lines 48-53, based on received network management instructions, such as data transfer rates, return channel frequencies and assigned time slots, the control processor 127 of the mobile terminal 120 compiles user messages for transmission at a designated one of a number of available data rates over the designated return channel 162 or 163. Herein, the time slots are time interval and return channel 162 or 163 is the one data transmission channel);

wherein said message (Fig. 9) comprises:

an indication of the frame type (Fig. 9, bulletin board 350, network management control message type);

an indication of said rate of said data (Fig. 9, DR 358); and an indication of said time interval (Fig. 9, time slots 367 ... 389);

wherein said frame type (Fig. 9, bulletin board 350) indicates at least one of link schedule (Fig. 9, Calendar Date 365), channel active set (Fig. 9, time slots 367 ... 389) and erasure-indicator-bit.

Conclusion

5. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

Chen et al (US Patent No. 5,923,650) discloses method and apparatus for reverse link rate scheduling.

Art Unit: 2616
